EXPLORE THE WORLD OF POLITICAL COMMUNICATION

How do political leaders deal with crises in the digital age? What political messages work well in the age of Twitter, Facebook, and YouTube? How does fake news influence the relationship between politics, media, and democracy? What political campaigns work well in the digital age? How do news media influcence our perceptions of political crises?
In this course, we explore the power of political communication across national and international events. Key events and topics include: Pandemic Politics, Donald Trump's rise to power, 2020 US Election, Disinformation and Democracy, Brexit, George Floyd protests, Islamic State Propaganda as well as China's and Russia's anti-western narratives. Join me for this exploration of political power in the digital age.
